To Whom It May Concern,

I have known Atwell Salvage and Demolition and its owner Mick Goodhind, since 1990, and have used them on numerous projects on our properties, including the owner's personal residence. They are safe, amazingly efficient, and reliable which is why they are the first and only call when we have demolition or salvage work to do.

I cannot begin to describe the value of making one call and knowing that all aspects of the demolition scope are covered fully. Atwell's planning, execution and thoroughness are second to none, and the only call I will make.

Please call me if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,
